The class is taking registration now.

7. Community News

(1). 中國殘疾人《千手观音》表演團 6/26 John Hancock Show

The famous 《千手观音》 dance team and a bunch of beautiful other show programs from 中國殘疾人表演團 will come to Boston for performance on Sat. 6/26 at John Hancock Center (Yes this time it is for sure:-). Newton Chinese Language School will be one of the co-host organizations for the event, therefore we have the tickets ready for sale on this coming Sunday. The prices are $25, $35, $55. There are very limited tickets available now, so please come early to get them if you'd like to see the famous show. We will setup a table in the front entrance of NCLS starting 1:45pm on Sunday.

It is not encouraged but you may if you have to drop me a note to reserve a few tickets for you if you can't go to NCLS on Sunday to buy tickets there.

(2). Harvard University Research Project needs your help:

<http://www.newtonchineseschool.org/news/哈佛大学教育学院研究项目.pdf>

We would like to thank all NCLS parents for your contributions to the school and your solid support to the school administration. Newton Chinese School is a truly wonderful and remarkable community. Thanks to the NCLS community for the opportunity to serve as your principals during this school year, and our best wishes for our school and our children. Have a wonderful summer vacation. See you all on September 12, 2010.

Most Sincerely,

Bin Han
